Learning ☆ Exploring ☆ Bonding

An 8-part series of educational programs designed to bring parents into their children's educational environment to help nurture and strengthen the educational relationship between parents and their children.

Grade 1 - Reading with Your Children

For the first night, participants will be given "10 Ways to help your child with reading". As a group the participants will be guided through the process of reading together. The next evening the participants will model the new skills and select a biography to read and use strategy sheet to assist with the reading of the book. The third evening, participants will create a poem to illustrate in a book. The last evening, participants will enjoy reading and sharing riddles, jokes and cartoons with each other.
