Parents and Children Together

Learning ☆ Exploring ☆ Bonding

An 8-part series of educational programs designed to bring parents into their children's educational environment to help nurture and strengthen the educational relationship between parents and their children.

Grade 6 - A Genealogy Jamboree

During these sessions, students and their parents will explore various ways to investigate their heritage. They will use computers and traditional resource sources to locate information and begin researching their family name and history. They will gather information such as meaning of names, lifespan of ancestors, and retrieve historical data. The student and parent will gather, organize and search for information to create their family tree.
