Parents and Children Together

Learning ☆ Exploring ☆ Bonding

An 8-part series of educational programs designed to bring parents into their children's educational environment to help nurture and strengthen the educational relationship between parents and their children.

Pre-K – “I Got the Music in Me”

In this program, students and their parents will sing, dance and play music. They will listen intuitively and participate joyfully in musical experiences. Furthermore, they will allow music awaken their inner creative spirit, thus making learning easier, more natural and more fun. Each night parent and child will explore varied musical avenues such as rhythm, beat, rhyme and poem. They will move to tempo and learn note-reading basics. This will include various songs and sing-a-long games.
